

Scholarships at Specific Colleges/Tech Institutes

Please check college/university web sites for scholarship opportunities unique to the school.	Check web site for deadlines.
University of West Florida New Academic Merit Scholarship-Undergraduate tuition. Seniors who have a class rank of numbers one through five after the first semester are eligible. There is no secondary application for this scholarship. Students must maintain a 3.0 cumulative GPA to be monitored at the end of each spring semester for the length of the scholarship. In addition, students must be enrolled full-time at UWF, unless in their final semester. For admission and/or information go to http://uwf.edu/admissions/uap.cfm. or http://uwf.edu/admissions/topfive.cfm.
Florida A & M University National Alumni Association-Multiple scholarships may be found at FAMU link at www.fwbvikings.com.
Florida A & M University-$4,000 to $10,000 scholarships. Female African-American seniors majoring in the field of computer technology are eligible. Go to http://www.cis.famu.edu/~aawcs/ for more information.
Troy University Emerald Coast Alumni Chapter Scholarship-$300 to $500 scholarships. Seniors planning to attend Troy University are eligible. Must complete application and provide at least one letter of recommendation.	Due by 6/01/2009.
Northwest Florida State College Fine and Performing Arts Scholarships-Go to http://www.nwfstatecollege.edu/humanities/Scholarships.cfm for requirements and applications for scholarships in dance, drama, instrument, technical theater, visual arts, and voice. (Requirements include auditions or interview.)	Depends on scholarship.